FBI DOCUMENTS FROM THE LIBRARY OF MEYER ZELIGS, Author of Friendship
and Fratricide. Viking Press, N.Y. 1967.

Obtained from the FBI

" June 26, 1945. John Abt, assistant Attorney General, Anti-Trust Division, Department of Justice. Husband of Jessica Smith, editor of Soviet Russia today."

The only attorney Lee Harvey Oswald advised to "help him"
after his arrest Nov. 22, 1963.

"Feb. 23, 1949. Felix August Inslerman, identified as Felix, was one of Chambers photographers for his underground apparatus.
A 35mm Leica camera was found in Inslerman's possession. The FBI had access to the pumpkin microfilm, concluded the two rolls were exposed by Inslerman's Leica camera."

"Feb. 18, 1949. David Whittaker Chambers, admitted homosexual, will provide names, date, places involved along these lines with Chambers or with others."

"Mr. Crane believes Chambers said their chief had been called
"Felix". It will be recalled that Alfred Tilton's predecessor was known as Felix. Crane was introduced to Chambers by a man described as the Chinaman. The contents of documents were signed by George Messerschmidt, who Chambers described as being 'absolutely clear on the Nazi question'".

"Crane recalled the first name of the Italian mentioned as Guido".
